Aircraft Co. Names Three New Officers

Two Northrop Aircraft vice presidents were assigned new duties and a third company executive was elevated to become assistant to the president of the Hawthorne aircraft company, it was announced Tuesday.

The new assignments, announced by President Whitley C. Collins, were:

John R. Allison, former administrative vice president, named vice president in charge of customer relations.

Robert R. Miller, former vice president and executive assistant to the president, named administrative vice president to replace Allison.

Gil Nettleton, formerly director of military relations, named assistant to the president.

Right-of-Way Grabbers Lead to Grief

Give, don't grab, the right-of-way.

Right-of-way grabbers caused one of every seven traffic accidents investigated by the California Highway Patrol during 1954, according to a statement released from Patrol headquarters by Commissioner B. R. Caldwell.

"The key to all right-of-way disputes is the word 'yield,'" Caldwell pointed out in commenting on the high percentage of collisions caused by failure to surrender right-of-way.

"The law always indicates which motorist must yield the right-of-way, allowing a driver to proceed ahead of another only after the other driver has yielded.

"Many drivers, either deliberately or because they are misinformed, assume that the right-of-way is granted to them legally and seem willing to defend it to the death, if necessary. Sadly, death often occurs in these cases," the commissioner said.

Caldwell explained that right-of-way violations present serious problems for enforcement officers and the best approach for motorists to yield voluntarily whenever the possibility of conflict arises.

"Our officers have been instructed to remain especially alert for right-of-way violations in order to reduce the large number of right-of-way accidents," he cautioned.

'Olympic Bride' on Three-Month Visit to Former Finnish Home

By JANET ROBINSON and BARBARA WEAVER
FR 5-7063

Some of our neighbors travel to far places. Mrs. Andrew Keir and her two children, Gail, 13 months, and Ralph, 5, of 4621 Green Meadows Ave., left last month for a three-month visit to her old home in Helsinki, Finland. Mrs. Keir is an "Olympic bride," for the Keirs met in Helsinki while Keir was there participating in the Olympic games and Mrs. Keir was acting as a guide. Via letters we hear interesting reports of life in Finland. American clothes make quite a hit, especially little girls' "rumba" panties. Mrs. Keir's parents plan to come to America as soon as immigration quotas permit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cork and their son and daughter, of 4802 Pacific Coast Hwy., just returned from a three week vacation. They drove directly back to Frances' home in Newburg, N.Y. From there they traveled to many points of interest — New York City, Baltimore, Washington, D.C., and then took the beautiful Skyline Drive to West Virginia where they visited Harry's family in Clarksburg. Points of interest on the return trip were the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, Grand Canyon, and Montezuma Castle National Monument. Harry's cousin, Bob Roby, returned with them to make his home in California.

Ruth and Ray Miller and son Johnny, of 4532 Pacific Coast Hwy., went to Palm Springs over the week end. The desert season must be over, for the sun was so hot that even the swimming pool was not comfortable for long.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meher, of 4536 Newton St., are en-

Job Seekers Up Slightly During May

Unemployment in Torrance showed a slight increase during May, but remained at about the same level as during the past three months, according to the local Department of Employment office.

Job seekers in the area numbered 740 at the end of May, compared with 714 in April, and 752 in March. Although all other categories remained nearly constant, the number of jobless semi-skilled workers increased from 118 to 155. On the other hand, unemployed fishermen declined from 38 to six.

Of the totals, there were 284 women and 456 men, 39 per cent of whom were veterans.

A breakdown by categories shows the following:

	June	May	April
Professional	42	46	48
Clerical	125	128	128
Sales	40	36	41
Service	85	85	89
Agriculture, Fishing	6	18	10
Skilled	152	160	166
Semi-skilled	165	116	129
Labor	125	130	143
Total	740	714	752

Schedule Announced

Summer session classes will be offered by the Adult Education Division of the C.V.U.H.S. District beginning Tuesday, July 5, and continuing for six weeks to August 12.

All students will register the first day the class meets at the regular class period.

Recreation Commission Post Filled by Bilotti

Anthony A. Bilotti, 18528 Ashley Ave., was appointed last week to fill a vacancy on the Recreation Commission created by resignation of Robert E. Waegner. The appointment was announced by Mayor Albert Isen.

joying a visit from Gene's mother, Mrs. J. J. Meher of Cleveland. Among places they have visited are the Farmers' Market and Knott's Berry Farm. Mrs. Meher leaves next Friday and will be accompanied by her granddaughter, Karen. This will be a real treat for seven-year-old Karen, for it will be her first plane trip. She will spend the summer with her grandparents in Cleveland.

Bi-monthly bridge club met Tuesday evening at the home of Janet Robinson, 4509 Green Meadows. Jeanne Pope won the prize of the evening. Also present were Jo Anne Douda, Janet Smith, Rosalie Davis, Jean Asher, Sonny Tomchak, and Barbara Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nelson, of Newton St., welcomed their first child, a baby boy named Kurt Anton, born June 5 and weighing 8 lbs. 4 ozs.

On the sick list this week is Billie Jean Bowman, of 4528 Pacific Coast Hwy., who has the mumps. Billie Jean will miss the last two weeks of school.

Mrs. Aneta Hume, of Newton St., was hostess at a meeting on Wednesday afternoon of neighborhood friends. Those present were Ann Moor, Rose Marie Glarum, Barbara Flamm, Mary Peck, Beverly Parkinson, Joyce Mitterer, Helen Lall, Rae Hatcher, Peggy Howenstein, Jenny Jung, and Pat Yates. This group spends Wednesday afternoons in various ways, such as sewing, trips to the beach, and finding fun in doing things together.

Through an oversight, the name of Arlen Charter, 4414

Pacific Coast Hwy., was omitted from the list of fathers who are helping in Little League. Charter is coach of the Major League Seals and one of the sparkplugs of Little League in this area.

Jean Asher, of 4608 Pacific Coast Hwy., entertained on Thursday evening at a surprise baby shower honoring Jeanne Pope and new son, Jonathan Jay. Those invited were Marilyn Torstenson, Sonny Tomchak, Norma Telfer, Agnes Rogers, Ruth McCarthy, Janet Smith, Barbara Weaver, Sue Austin, Janice Lee, Liz Adams, Janet Robinson, Nevin Fosterling, and Jo Anne Douda.

Starting Monday, June 20, Ray Smith, of 4438 Green Meadows; Bill Cameron of 23655 Susana; and Clifford Hugoboom are operating a day camp for children from 7 to 13. There will be trips of interest, sports, and activities to occupy the children through the summer months. If interested call FR 5-7359 or FR 5-8039 for further information.

Don't forget the Little League Hit and Run Dance at the Hollywood Riviera Club on June 18th!
